

salt peter — aka Michael Todd Cohen

1005 Prospect Drive, Stratford, CT • (617) 312-7723
michaeltoddcohen@icloud.com | michaeltoddcohen.com

Publications*

"On Permanence," Brevity, Jan 2026
"Start with a Murder," Brevity, Feb 2025
"Dave Has Wished Me a Happy Father's Day," CT Literary Anthology, Oct 2024
"Williamstown, Summer 2003," Split/Lip Magazine, Nov 2023
"Debtors to a Mercy We Never Begged For," The Rumpus, Nov 2023
"Another Season," CT Literary Anthology, Oct 2023
"On a Monday, Mourning Doves," Alan Squire Bulletin, June 2023
"Like a Hardy Boy Lost," Complete Sentence, Mar 2022
"When Flash Nonfiction Strikes You," Catapult, Jan 2022
"Signs," JMWW Journal, Dec 2021
"Desire, Three Ways," Pithead Chapel, Dec 2021
"On Time," Columbia Journal, Jan 2021
"Now, You Tell Me Something," The Maine Review, Jan 2021
"A Rental in the Poconos," JMWW Journal, Nov 2020
"13 Things You Should Know About My Husband," (mac)ro(mic), Sept 2020
"Listing," X-R-A-Y Magazine, Sept 2020
"Spring Cleaning," Stone of Madness Press, Aug 2020†
"Clasping Hands," Barren Magazine, July 2020

* links to work available at michaeltoddcohen.com

† Nominated for a Pushcart Prize

Experience

X-R-A-Y Literary Magazine

Assistant Nonfiction Editor, Apr 2021 – Present

Digital literary magazine founded in 2018, with a mission to publish "uncomfortable, entertaining, and unforgettable prose that shines brighter than the skeleton in your body, prose that sees through the skin and reveals something deeper."

Curiouser.co

Publisher & Editor-in-Chief, Apr 2020 – Apr 2021

Digital publication that covers stories and interviews for the perpetually curious. Embraces voices from the world of science, history, faith, arts and culture to spark conversation and drive innovation. Awarded 2020 Folio: Award, Editorial Excellence alongside National Geographic and Harvard Business Review.

Industrious Magazine

Editor-in-chief, Feb 2018 – Jan 2020

International print and digital publication with interviews and editorial features exploring technology's impact on humanity. Awarded Best Technology Publication 2019, Content Marketing Awards.

saltpeter — aka Michael Todd Cohen

1005 Prospect Drive, Stratford, CT • (617) 312-7723
michaeltoddcohen@icloud.com | michaeltoddcohen.com

Education, Teaching and Workshop Leadership

Goucher College
MFA, 2023

Boston University
BFA, 2003

Sacred Heart University
Lecture: "Literary Magazine Publishing," Feb 2023

3-2-1 Community Talks: Rachel Laverdiere
Panel Discussion and Reading: "Lyricism in Nonfiction," Feb 2022

X-R-A-Y Literary Magazine
"Beat the Rejection Rut: What Lit Mags Look for and Smart Submitting Strategy," Nov 2021

The Nonfiction Sessions: A Virtual Conference for Writers
"Literary Magazines: Building Confidence, Community and a Body of Work," Nov 2021

Goucher College
Graduate Assistant, Writing Studies, Sept 2021 – Dec 2021

Workshop, Readings & Community

AWP Conference
Queer Celebration Reading with Chen Chen and Nicole Tallman, Feb 2024

Stratford Library
2024 Connecticut Literary Anthology reading with Victoria Buitron, Oct 2024

Norwalk Public Library
2023 Connecticut Literary Anthology reading with Victoria Buitron, Oct 2023

VT Studio Center, PM Lilac Fellowship for Environmental and Social Justice, Summer 2025
Kenyon Review Writer Workshop, Dinty W. Moore, Winter 2025
Kenyon Review Writer Workshop, Melissa Faliveno, Summer 2024
Kenyon Review Writer Workshop, Hanif Abdurraqib, Heather Christle, Paisley Rekdal, Winter 2023

Lordship House Community

Organized by Michael Todd Cohen & Adrian Dallas Frandle in 2022. Includes poets, essayists, playwrights, publishers, agents, editors, visual artists, musicians, academics and scholars seeking communion through letters, literature and in-person dialogue.

Our mission is to make community and communion through: the epistolary, the dialogue of the literary salon, and the queer tradition of finding, making and fostering spaces in which to flourish.

[lordshiphouse.net]