

A Karlsson Rixon. Nakenakt (Nude)

Nakenakt (Nude) Installation view Thielska Gallery, Stockholm, 2018

Nakenakt (Nude)

Year: 2016/2018

Media 1: installation with 36 photographs, each framed with a 55 x 55 cm passepartout.

Media 2: book (15 pages).

Exhibitions: Thielska Gallery (Stockholm, 2018), Thomasen Gallery; (Gothenburg, 2020) and Gothenburg Museum of Art (2021).

Nakenakt (Nude) is a series of 36 photographs where acts are performed by Karlsson Rixon and artist colleague Mar Fjell. One body effortlessly carries another and at the same time meets the viewer's gaze. The work revolves around play and queer intimacy.

Nakenakt (Nude) is also a small book that is actually two books. The fifteen pages of thin cardboard are designed like an accordion, where one side shows a selection of photographs, and the other contains a text by the author Mara Lee. These are two independent works depicting nudes, which can be read in dialogue with each other. The book object can also be displayed in various forms as a small exhibition. Published by Art & Theory, Stockholm.

Nakenakt (Nude) is designed by Karlsson Rixon and was selected as one of the winners of the Swedish Art Book Award 2019.

Parts of the series are in the collection of the Gothenburg Museum of Art and the Gothenburg City Art Collection.

