SUMMARY

I am a lens-based artist based in Toronto, Ontario. I earned my diploma in Photographic Technology in Edmonton in 2015 and worked as a freelance photographer/artist until 2020. I decided to pursue further education in Toronto, where I earned my degree in New Media from Toronto Metropolitan University in 2025.

In my degree, I developed a passion for exhibition design, archival studies, and disability justice. In addition to my freelance photography work, those are areas of interest of mine where I worked/volunteer in, from assisting in
