

Omar Miranda
(Jaruco, Mayabeque, Cuba. 1991)

In 2009, he joined the Hermanos Saiz Association in Havana (an organization of young Cuban artists). His work as an artist was exhibited in galleries on the island until 2013. He collaborated on the Torre de Letras project by writer Reina María Rodríguez at the Cuban Book Institute. His work from this period was published in numerous Cuban magazines such as La Gaceta de Cuba - UNEAC and La Letra de la Escriba. After studying for two years at the Faculty of Architecture in Havana, in 2013 he moved to Madrid where he studied Architecture at the Polytechnic University (ET-SAM-UPM). After working in architecture firms such as Rueda-Pizarro and winning the second prize in the 2016 Cemex White Chair competition during his student years; In 2018, he joined Arquitectura al Descubierto (Architecture Uncovered), where, along with his colleagues, he was awarded the 2020 COAM Interior Design Prize and the 2021 COACM New Housing Construction Prize. In 2023, he began designing accessories for fashion brands, creating two award-winning collections on the Madrid catwalk: ADA-RRAK (Autumn/Winter 2023) with Aitor Goikoetxea and Reunión (Spring/Summer 2024) with EMEERREE, both winners of the Mercedes Benz Fashion Talent Award. In 2024, he opened his own creative studio in Madrid. In 2025, he was part of the main cast of the film Proto by artist Alvaro Chior, currently in post-production. He also held the solo exhibition "Accustomed to Contact" and performed "Fitting Room" at Madrid Fashion Week, as a tribute to the artist Felix Gonzalez Torrez.
