ARTISTIC PRACTICE

Barrio Pop Studio — Austin, TX

Founder & Artist | 2020 – Present

Barrio Pop Studio is a multidisciplinary artistic practice grounded in scent, printmaking, installation, and ritual. The work examines queer Latinx identity, pleasure, domestic space, and cultural memory through olfactory storytelling and material experimentation.

- Create scent-based works, cyanotypes, and limited-edition objects exploring intimacy, ritual, and queer cultural archives
- Develop concept-driven bodies of work informed by research on memory, pleasure, and embodied experience
- Use scent as an archival and narrative medium, positioning fragrance as a carrier of personal and collective histories
- Activate work through exhibitions, collaborative projects, and site-responsive installations

CURATORIAL PROJECTS

Scent Fair Austin — Austin, TX

Founder & Curator | 2025 – Present

A conceptual exhibition platform centering scent as an artistic and curatorial framework.

- Curate multi-artist exhibitions focused on olfactory art, queer embodiment, and sensory practices
- Commission and collaborate with artists working across performance, sculpture, and installation
- Develop curatorial texts and public programs addressing scent, intimacy, and cultural memory
