

*Spectacle **

2025

21 " x 28"

Digital inkjet print, intaglio,
sugar lift, soft ground, open bite

1/10

Spectacle* holds the tension of being seen. Printed and etched into paper and skin, the word suggests both presence and exposure. When a life becomes spectacle; celebrated, scrutinized, politicized, what remains yours? This work lingers in that ambiguity, where visibility offers both recognition and erasure, intimacy and distance, power and vulnerability.