

For The Future, For The Past
2025

22" x 17"

Archival Inkjet Print, Archival
Images sourced from The History
Project - 22 Bromfield Street Arson
Aftermath/ Community Gay News
Headquarters Arson - Mile Riegler
Collection, collaged with my own photographs

In 1982, an arson attack at 22 Bromfield Street, in Boston MA, destroyed the files, materials, and images of Boston's Community Gay News, Fg Rag*, and Glad Day Books. In the photographs documenting the aftermath, I noticed light and shadow forming human-like shapes. These impressions made me think about how violence lingers in both body and community and how, like a body, a community carries wounds, heals, and transforms.