

IN BED WITH GIO

2021, Interactive performance, 45 min
Les Urbaines festival (Switzerland)

A story of casinos, silk bathrobes, and the scent of poppers: in a dim, velvety atmosphere, chips are scattered across a bed in reference to the infamous creator of Playboy magazine. Making an entrance on a motorcycle, I crash straight into the set, wrecking the décor, before inviting the Swiss audience to play blackjack under a haze of poppers and energy drinks. The line between game, seduction and scam quickly blurs, all under the surveillance of three live cameras and alongside Miss Tina, an uncooperative Playmate determined to flip the table and bring the game to ruin. Following in the footsteps of Hugh Hefner, who denaturalized representations of masculinity by staging sexy men in domestic interiors, I propose a trans reinterpretation of the bachelor pad, this time destabilized from within.
